Diamond Jubilee W.M.U. Convention To Feature Great Historical Pageant

The Diamond Jubilee Convention of the Mississippi Baptist Woman's Missionary Union—celebrating 75 years of glorious existence—will be held March 31-April 2 at Jackson's First Baptist Church.

The feature of the convention will be the Historical Pageant with 500 people participating, to be presented in Jackson's City Auditorium on Wednesday night.

Presented by the Woman's Missionary Union, this pageant will portray in three episodes the beginnings of Baptist life in Mississippi as well as something of the challenge of this day.

An interesting program has been prepared, presenting several outstanding leaders of the Southern Baptist Convention including several former Mississippians.

They include: Dr. M. Theron Rankin, executive secretary of Foreign Mission Board, Richmond; Mrs. George R. Martin, of Norfolk, president Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to Southern Baptist Convention; Dr. J. B. Lawrence, executive secretary Home Mission Board, Atlanta; Dr. T. L. Holcomb, executive secretary Sunday School Board, Nashville; and Miss Gladys Keith of River Front Mission, New Orleans.

A number of Mississippians will have parts on the program, which will be presided over by Miss Almarine Brown, of Jackson, state W. M. U. president.

The convention will begin Tuesday evening, Mar. 31 at 7:45 and adjourn at noon Thursday.

The state B. W. C. Federation luncheon on Tuesday evening will be one of the social highlights of the meeting.

COOPERATIVE PROGRAM INCREASE 13 PER CENT

Nashville, Tenn.—(BP)—At the end of the first two months of 1953 gifts to the Southern Baptist Convention Cooperative Program stand $198,791 or 13 per cent ahead for the same two months of last year. The 1953 figure is $1,724,057 as compared with $1,525,266 for last year. Designated gifts the same period this year were $418,317 more than last year, an increase of 26.84 per cent. This year's total was $1,977,053 as compared with $1,558,735 in 1952.

Adding Cooperative Program gifts and designations together the total comes to $3,701,111 for 1953 and $3,084,001 for last year, an over all increase of $617,109 or 20 per cent.

Suggests Merger Of Radio Commission And Home Board

By DR. W. DOUGLASS HUDGINS
Pastor, First Church of Jackson

A problem faces our Convention. The Radio Commission, since the death of Dr. Lowe, has been without a Secretary. The Home Mission Board is faced with selection of a successor to Dr. Lawrence.

Each of these agencies has ministered by radio through the territory of our Convention. Doubtless, each has done much to keep our cause before the people, especially in areas where Baptists are not strong. But, the fact remains—two agencies of Southern Baptists are doing the same thing!

A few days ago, John Jeter Hurt, Editor of the Christian Index, gave concrete expression to an idea that has been discussed by a large number of pastors and interested church members.

Editor Hurt's suggestion is that the work of the Radio Commission be merged into the Program of the Home Mission Board.

May I express my feeling that this is a wise move. Now that both agencies are seeking secretaries, it appears to me that it is a fine time to consolidate. The reasons are logical. It would effect an economy that we could stand. It would prevent overlapping. It would channel our radio ministry into areas where Baptist emphasis is needed. It would afford a rich mission medium. A dynamic radio preacher each week as a part of Home Mission, with no promotional or executive responsibility would extend further our purpose of gospel preaching. It

LOTTIE MOON OFFERING OVER THREE MILLION

The Foreign Mission Board has received a Lottie Moon Christmas Offering check for $1,239,105.98 from the Southern Baptist Convention Executive Committee. This entire amount comes from the Woman's Missionary Union of Texas, making the second year Texas Baptists have raised more than a million dollars for foreign missions through the Lottie Moon Offering. Dr. M. Theron Rankin, executive secretary of the Foreign Mission Board, said that although the books on the offering will not be closed until May 1, the offering from all the states now totals $3,107,160.66. Last year's total was $2,668,051.30.

R. A. Congress Great Success

Mississippi's first State Royal Ambassadors' Congress held Friday and Saturday of last week at Calvary Church in Jackson was acclaimed a tremendous success as 828 boys and their counselors registered. Total registration was 1,008.

One of the highlights of the meeting was the election of officers, featured by spirited nominating and balloting from the floor.

Elected as ambassador in chief was Lee McIlwain, a member of Jackson's First Church, while Louis McCraw, Jr. of the same church was elected as first assistant ambassador.

Selected as recorder was Bobby Lutz of Bloxi and Larry Smith of Laurel was named steward.

Advisory Group Named By Exec. Committee

The Executive Committee of Mississippi Baptist Convention Board met in called session March 13 in the Baptist Building. Those present were: Rev. James Fairchild, Marion Perry, Dr. Wilbern Lawrence, Rev. J. B. Smith, Rev. A. B. Pierce, Rev. Gordon Sansing, Dr. Chester L. Quarles and J. E. Lane.

A Business Advisory Committee was set up composed of Marion Perry, Rev. L. Gordon Sansing and Kermit Cofer. This is a standing committee to work with Dr. Chester Quarles and Treasurer Lane. And to see that the committee works, it was instructed to study the organizational set-up of the Board with a view to making recommendations for greater efficiency and economy.

The committee appropriated $250 to be used for microfilming the Baptist Record. This is a new process by which any paper may be microfilmed on very small films and stored in very small space in fire proof containers. It is hoped to have all volumes of the Baptist Record microfilmed within the next year.

Treasurer J. E. Lane brought an optimistic report of the financial affairs of the Convention.

The Indian work was discussed at length but action was deferred until the April meeting of the committee.

$790,527 Allocated By Foreign Board

The Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board appropriated $790,527.01 for buildings and equipment for its foreign mission fields and named three young people for overseas mission service at its March meeting.

Most of the money came from $1,038,000 received in January from Cooperative Program funds over-and-above the fixed budget of the Southern Baptist Convention. (Three hundred thousand dollars of these advance program funds were set aside at the January meeting to be applied on the Board's 1954 budget to help underwrite the increased commitments which will be reflected by the appointment of 100 new missionaries in 1953.)

The money for capital improvements was divided between the Board's three general areas of work as follows: Africa, Europe, and the Near East, $262,521.35; Latin America, $300,000; and the

Orient, $225,000.Major Projects

Some of the major projects to receive aid from the March appropriations include $74,819.85 for the erection and completion of missionary residences in Nigeria, $60,000 to be applied toward $120,000 needed to move the Baptist Academy in Lagos, Nigeria, to a more desirable location, and $10,000 for completion of an administration building for the Baptist Theological Seminary in Ogbomoso, Nigeria, where a total of $120,000 will have been spent.

Southern Rhodesia will receive $36,542.50 for use in erecting a mission house at Sanyati, an addition to an earlier appropriation for a hospital in Sanyati, for hospital equipment, books and equipment for industrial classes in the Baptist schools, and for purchase of a building to be used temporarily for printing purposes.

Among appropriations for Europe was $2,500 for materials for a chapel in Liege, Belgium; and $4,000 to complete a building for the Baptist church in Waldshut, Germany.

Lebanon will receive $10,000 to complete missionary residences already begun.

In Latin America, $45,000 will be used to complete and equip the last unit of the Baptist hospital in Barranquilla, Colombia, where a total of $250,000 will have been spent; $30,000 to complete the administration building for the Baptist Theological Seminary in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; $60,000 to complete and equip three buildings for the International Baptist Seminary in Buenos Aires, Argentina, and $27,000 for the second of four units to be built at the Baptist Seminary in Torreon, Mexico.

For the Orient, the Board allocated $125,000 for a library building for Seinan Gakuin, a standard four-year Baptist college, Fukuoka, Japan, which has 2,400 students; $25,000 for a church building adjacent to the Seinan Gakuin campus; $25,000 to assist the Hillwood Road Baptist Church, Hong Kong, in obtaining a new location and erecting a new building; and $6,000 for a lot for a clinic on Mindanao, Philippine Islands, where Southern Baptists will undertake their first medical work in that republic.

New Appointees

Named to mission service were Rev. and Mrs. Charles Wallace Campbell, of Dallas, Tex., for Argentina, and Rev. Daniel Brooks Ray, of Bonham, Tex., for Korea where his father, Rev. Rex Ray, is now serving.

CLARKE COLLEGE IS FIRST COLLEGE TO MAKE RURAL CHURCH SURVEY

Rev. John W. Wells, field secretary of the Rural Church Program, was on the Clarke College campus recently helping make plans for the first rural church survey program.

On two afternoons, enthusiastic teams of students along with the pastors went into every home on the fields and gathered the information pertaining to church and religious life, along with other information that will be useful for the pastors. Maps of the field had already been prepared.

The churches participating and their pastors are: Liberty, Rev. T. L. Everett; Beulah, Rev. Gilbert Daniels; Cross Roads, Rev. Burley Bridges; Rock Branch, Rev. Hoyte Nelson; and Midway, Dr. John F. Carter. Members of the faculty helped in the program.

Forty-seven students participated in the program.

Our Lord always provides us with opportunities to witness of which we never dream. — Harvey O. Headrick, missionary to Brazil.

We Approve Hudgins' And Hurt's Suggestion

On another page will be found an article by Dr. W. Douglas Hudgins, pastor of the First Church, Jackson, entitled, "Suggests Merger of Radio Commission and Home Board." The same matter was discussed in a recent issue of the Christian Index, Georgia Baptists' state paper, by the editor, John Jeter Hurt, Jr. Both Dr. Hudgins and Editor Hurt suggest that now is a favorable time to merge the Radio Commission with the Home Mission Board. The Radio Commission is without a secretary since the death of Dr. Lowe. The Home Mission Board will soon be without a secretary due to the retirement of Dr. Lawrence. This makes the present time favorable for a merger. There are also many reasons for the merger.

If ever the merger is to be made the time is NOW.

If both agencies had secretaries there would be a lively fight concerning consolidation. But now with one agency without a secretary and the other seeking a successor to the retiring secretary, the time is favorable. And the reasons for consolidation are always favorable. The two agencies are located in the same city. The two agencies are doing similar work in some lines. Administrative expenses would be reduced, as both the editor and the pastor suggest. Why have two agencies doing the same thing when one could do it? Any money saved by consolidation could well be spent otherwise.

One Day We Should Observe More Widely

Sunday, March 29, by Convention action, has been set aside as Home and Foreign Mission Day in our Sunday Schools. Regretfully we acknowledge that many of our churches do little or nothing about it. This is not an extra or a special offering. It is a regular offering and is a part of our program.

It is not our duty to tell Baptists what to do, but there is no law to forbid us reminding them of opportunities.

Some churches give nothing or small amounts to our mission program. This is an opportunity. Other churches have many members who give little or nothing to the church program. Some of these would give if the opportunities were presented.

It is true that at least a million, probably more, of our more than seven million Southern Baptists never give anything. There are other millions who give far less than the tithe. If every pastor in the state would secure envelopes and distribute them, many people, some good givers—others poor givers—would make some kind of an offering. The total amount would be worthy.

May we urge every pastor and every Sunday school superintendent to see that a supply of envelopes is on hand and an opportunity for everybody to make an offering is given. In some churches March 29 will not be a convenient day. If so, set the most convenient time and TAKE THE OFFERING.

Offerings should be sent to the Baptist Convention Board, Box 530, Jackson, and marked Home and Foreign Missions.

Is Your Pastor Graduating?

It will soon be commencement time. Many of our pastors are also students and some of them will be graduating. Some of them are having a hard time financially.

May we suggest a plan that will help lighten the load as well as brighten the home and cheer the heart.

Let every church whose pastor is a student give him a commencement shower. He will remember it as long as life lasts, and it will be an inspiration to the pastor and perhaps meet a real need.

All That Money

Not many years ago, the problem among our Baptist people was: "How can we get the money?" It is different today. Thanks to God's blessings and more than a generation of emphasis on Christian stewardship and giving, the funds are really "rolling in". And our great problem now is to make sure that we use carefully and wisely "all that money".

Just a few years ago, our State Mission budget was $40,000. Now it is about $200,000. The Week of Prayer offering for Foreign Missions was over $2,000,000 in 1951, over against a total income for the Foreign Board for all purposes in 1933 of about $500,000; while the total income for Foreign Missions in 1951 was more than $8,000,000. Church budgets have increased from 100 per cent to several hundred per cent. The associational budget for Jones County is $10,000 this year. And even when we allow for inflation, we must realize that we are handling huge sums of the Lord's funds today. Let us pray for great wisdom and divine guidance in using all this money.

Pastors, we were ready to receive salary increases when we were sorely underpaid. Are we just as ready to decline a raise when we are offered more than we could justly expect in God's sight? Was a Baptist Church in North Carolina justified in spending $50,000 for a pastor's home? We were so happy when we began to see our church buildings made respectable and commodious. Are we willing to recognize that there is a point in building church houses beyond which lies luxury and extravagance? As our mission boards expand their work, are they extremely careful that every outlay of their thousands and millions is scrupulously allocated? We have great confidence in them; but they can all be careful along with all our agencies, not to develop a favored class who are given special financial advantages. We must be just as diligent in the use we make of "all that money" as we were in teaching and training our people to give "all that money."

—Rev. J. H. Street.

Our Readers Write

FROM TEXAS

My Dear Friend:

Thanks a million for sending the "marked copy" of the Baptist Record concerning the exceptionally fine article on the Revised Standard Version of the Holy Bible. I am suggesting that it be read and let the Bible speak its word to each heart. It will help—not hurt. I certainly appreciate your article.

— A TEXAS PASTOR.

TEACHER'S HOPES REALIZED

"I hope the translators of the New Testament will be more honest this time than they were before," said Dr. A. T. Robertson. His Senior Greek class was reading the book of Titus, and had come to the second chapter and thirteenth verse, which reads, in the King James version, "Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ." Dr. Robertson told his class that the word "and" did not appear in the Greek between the expression "the great God" and the expression "our Saviour Jesus Christ." The Apostle Paul here refers to Jesus Christ as God, which is contrary to the belief of some religious groups, for instance, the Unitarians.

Dr. Robertson said that he was distinctly disappointed when the American Revision Committee continued in 1901 to mis-translate this verse of Scripture, and some others like it.

"Jesus Christ IS God," declared Dr. Robertson. The King James and American Revised versions translate II Peter 1:1 . . . "the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;" and "the righteousness of our God and the Saviour Jesus Christ," respectively. In both cases the reference appears to be to TWO people, rather than one, as the Greek plainly indicates.

The great old Greek teacher's hopes and dreams have been realized in the Revised Standard Version. Titus 2:13 is correctly translated, . . . "our great God and Saviour Jesus Christ." II Peter 1:1 is also correctly translated, . . . the righteousness of our God and Saviour Jesus Christ." Thank God for the testimony of all those who fearlessly confess, with Paul and Peter, that CHRIST IS GOD!

Baltimore, Md. (RNS) — The Baltimore Evening Sun has been asked by the Merseyside Bottle Evangelists of Liverpool, England, to watch for bottle Bible tracts recently cast into the Atlantic Ocean. The English group prepares tracts and bottles for missionaries, going abroad. Once on a ship, the missionary says a prayer, tosses a bottle over the side and lets the current carry it to land. The notification came to the Evening Sun by regular mail. Last August, one of the Society's bottles was found on the Baltimore shore line by three children, who notified the Sun. The paper printed the story, a clipping of which eventually reached the Society in Liverpool.

A Delta-Wide Revival Rally was planned at a very early date, March 2. Publicity had to be gotten out in a hurry. Dr. Wilbanks mailed a letter and a program to 138 pastors. He asked seven department secretaries to mail a letter and a program to all persons on their mailing list. Every department seemed eager thus to serve simultaneous revivals, and went right to work. A total of 893 letters and programs got away in time to reach the workers in the churches two Sundays before the Rally date. Such cooperation marks those who work together in love. Mississippi College Girls Promote "Kartoons For Korea"

CLINTON — "Kartons for Korea" is the newest of a series of welfare projects undertaken by Mississippi College students this year. Sponsored by the Laguna Tride, a campus women's organization, its purpose is to provide relief for an orphanage in Korea which was earlier adopted by men of the 45th Infantry Division.

Boxes have been placed in each of the campus dormitories for students to deposit used or discarded clothing for the orphans.

Tribe activities in the project have been coordinated by Dottie Leavell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. Q. Leavell of New Orleans; Valdez Whitlock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Whitlock of Meridian; Gloria Arbuthnot, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Arbuthnot of Clinton; and Welfare Chairman Lillian McEarely, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. McEarely of Clinton.

Among the recent visitors to the Baptist Building were: James P. Gilbert, Clara; Mrs. J. C. Meyer, Jackson; E. L. Clark, Newton; Rev. Charlie Thompson, Clinton; Rev. Tom Sims, Clinton; Burnis Barrett, Clinton; Buck Jackson, Clinton; Rev. A. B. Pierce, Kosciusko; Rev. Paul Kolb, Drew.

The Art of Effective Teaching ($3.75) by C. B. Eavey has recently been released by the Zondervan Publishing House. This text is up-to-date and up-to-the minute. Dr. Eavey looks upon education as a composite of learning, growing and living, all part of one process, interrelated and interdependent. He asks the pertinent question, "What do you teach—pupils or subjects?" From that point he proceeds to point out clearly and unmistakably the difference between ordinary teaching and effective teaching. Some chapter titles: Effective Teaching, The Art of Effective Teaching, The Teacher's Evaluation of His Teaching, and Arranging Conditions for Effective Teaching. Order from the Baptist Book Store.

Dr. Jewell Kyxar, pastor of First Church, Greenwood, will be the evangelist for the revival at Parkway Church in Jackson April 19-26. Dr. G. Norman Price is the pastor.

Conservation Landuse To Be Stressed April 6-12

L. F. Angelo, Edwards, president of the Mississippi Association of Soil Conservation District Commissioners, has announced the week of April 6-12 as Conservation Landuse Emphasis Week. An entire week's program is being planned, to be climaxed on Sunday, April 12 with sermons in the various churches throughout Mississippi.

"We hope to have a sermon on soil and water conservation in every pulpit in the state," Angelo stated. The Conservation Association president also stated that any minister can secure explanatory conservation material from one of the five commissioners in the local districts or counties.

The churches of Mississippi can do much to develop a better understanding and appreciation of our soil and land resources. "For that reason every minister in the state is urged to cooperate with the governing boards of soil conservation districts in making this program a success," Angelo concluded.

Youth Health Handbook (Junior Life Adjustment Booklet Series) is by Julius B. Richmond, M. D.

"Health," to many children means eating foods they hate, going to bed when they'd rather stay up, and wasting time to "Dress warm" when they're in a hurry to get outside. They worry about accidents or diseases—about what might go wrong—but are often impatient of the things they should do to keep their good health. Parents and teachers often lose their own patience trying to teach concern for proper health habits. As an aid to the patience of adults, as a remedy for the impatience of children, "Your Health Handbook" will serve well. Written for youngsters, it will give them a knowledge of body functions and serve as a stimulant to acquire proper health habits. The price is 40 cents each; special quantity discounts. Order from Science Research Associates, 57 West Grand Avenue, Chicago 10, Illinois.

Membership Revival Making Notable Progress

The church membership revival and loyalty campaign of Poplar Springs Drive Church, Meridian is making excellent progress.

A noticeable increase in attendance in all the worship services and organizational meetings of the church is evident. The Sunday School and Training Union attendance for the first two Sundays in the campaign was almost identical. Attendance was 424 each Sunday in Sunday School with 209 and 210 respectively in Training Union.

The campaign which has as its purpose the enlistment of every resident member in every service of the church is to continue for four more weeks. It will come to a close on Easter Sunday at which time recognition will be given to all those who have been 100 per cent in attendance throughout the six weeks period.

Rev. David Byrd is pastor.

BROTHERHOOD DEPARTMENT

W. R. ROBERTS, Secretary JO ANN SUMMERS, Office Secretary

WHAT ARE THE ELEMENTS OF A GOOD BROTHERHOOD MEETING?

Briefly, they are:

- (1) Good Music (group singing, special vocal and instrumental numbers. Remember that men like quartet singing!)
- (2) Devotion: Prayer and Bible Reading.
- (3) Reports of Work Done (Reports may be brought by committee heads, or by the Activities vice president).
- (4) Report and recommendations of the executive committee.
- (5) Recognition of visitors and introduction of new members.
- (6) A word from the pastor.
- (7) The program.
- (8) Roundtable discussion.
- (9) Season of Prayer, and Benediction.

It will be well to weave in all the above elements, but not always in the same order. Avoid stereotyped programs. Always bring in a surprise. Have some fun, as well as serious moments. Prepare well-balanced programs which have in them some elements that will make their appeal to everybody there.

WHY HAVE REGULAR EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETINGS?

The Executive Committee of the church Brotherhood has the responsibility of the general oversight of all the work of the Brotherhood. The committee is made up of the leaders of the Brotherhood, those who have been charged with all the phases of Brotherhood work.

The Executive Committee should meet Once Each Month, without fail; and examine the Brotherhood in every part; make any needed adjustments; iron out the rough spots; strengthen the Brotherhood towards its objectives; examine the personnel shifts; examine and strengthen the program prepared by the Program vice president for the next meeting; keep the Brotherhood positively in line with the church program; fill vacancies in Brotherhood leadership; keep the Brotherhood on the track towards its objectives; examine to work committee activities; and anything else that needs to be done.

No Brotherhood can function well without regular Executive Committee meetings. Good, regular executive committee meetings mean a Brotherhood that Functions Smoothly and Effectively to produce Worthwhile Results that will enhance the whole program of the church.

DISTRICT CONFERENCES BEGIN NEXT WEEK

Yes, sir, Brother and Sister Sunday School Leader, next Monday, March 23, is the time for our round of 20 district Sunday school conferences over the state to get off to a good and fast start.

The program has been planned with the idea of helping our people in some of the most important matters facing us this year, and being very practical in doing this.

The greatest single item on the Southern Baptist Sunday School program this year is the emphasis on getting ready for "A Million More in '54." That has a most prominent place and part on the program of these conferences. We must work hard on this to reach our part.

Therefore, we are counting heavily on the Pastors, Superintendents, Department Leaders, Teachers, and Associational Officers and Missionaries to help us in getting the people to attend these conferences. We are asking all to attend the one most convenient. Lunch will be provided by the host church each day.

HERE'S THE PROGRAM

Here is the program for the 20 conferences:

9:45 Devotional
10:00 Cradle Roll and Nursery
10:20 Growth Through Training
10:50 Helps For Teachers
11:10 "A Million More in '54"
11:50 Announcements.
12:00 Lunch
1:00 Devotional
1:10 The Extension Ministry
1:25 Stewardship Emphasis
1:40 Vacation Bible School.
2:10 VBS Worship Program
Demonstration
2:50 What Say You?
3:10 Adjourn.

NEXT WEEK'S SCHEDULE

Here is the schedule for next week, March 23-7:

Monday, Monticello; Tuesday, Meadville; Wednesday, Fayette; Thursday, Jackson, Parkway; Friday, Mendenhall.

Attend the one most convenient. We shall have on hand a large quantity of free literature on all phases of the work, and you will want to be there and get yours.

BUS TO RIDGECREST

A bus will run from Jackson to Ridgcrest for the first Sunday School Week, June 18-24.

Do you want a place on it? We shall be glad to hold one for you, but we need to get the information as soon as possible.

Therefore, talk this up in your church and get some of your Sunday school leaders to attend. It will be money wisely spent. A week at Ridgcrest will help one physically, mentally and spiritually.

SIMPSON HAS GOOD MEETING

The Simpson Association had a good Sunday school meeting on the night of Feb. 16, at Pinola, with Supt. H. Z. Scarborough, presiding.

The attendance was good and the program helpful. Fred Kennedy of Magee gave the devotion; Rev. O. O. Davis of Pinola emphasized the value of Training; Rev. V. W. Malley of Harrisville spoke on the Vacation Bible School program, and Paul Boothe of Jackson gave emphasis to the value of a well-balanced program of work.

There were 6 pastors, 10 superintendents and 23 teachers present from 14 churches. The next meeting will be at Macedonia, May 18.

TUTWILER JUNIORS GROW

From 13 to 48 enrolled in the Junior department, March 1951 to March 1953, is the very excellent record at Tutwiler. Also, the department and all five classes are standard. The standard program was an important factor in this.

Mrs. J. H. Everett is the superintendent.

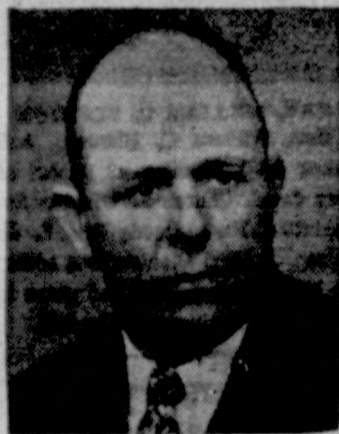

SIX STANDARD NURSERIES

It is not necessarily easy to standardize one Nursery department. But when one school has six standard nurseries, that is something else.

However, that is the splendid record of the First Baptist Church, Jackson, with Mrs. J. E. Morrow, Jr., the co-ordinator of the Nursery departments.

Yes, Standard units are better.

Stonewall Evangelist

REV. J. F. McCLELLAND

The revival meeting of the Stonewall Baptist Church will be held March 22-29. Rev. J. F. McClelland of Pineville, La., former rural evangelist of La., will preach and C. Roland Boyd of Evans, Ga., will lead the singing. Services daily 10 a. m., and 7:30 p. m.

Annual Yazoo County Senior Banquet Set

All Baptist high school seniors in Yazoo county have been invited to attend the annual banquet sponsored by the Yazoo County Association, Saturday night, March 21.

Mrs. I. E. Rouse, dean of students at Mississippi Woman's College will be the speaker and special music will be rendered by the college octet.

The meeting will be held at the First Baptist Church with Owen Cooper, moderator, presiding.

Seven Mississippians are to graduate at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at the coming commencement exercises.

Naturally these have a desire to serve in their own state if the Lord so wills.

Shown below are the graduates-to-be and some information concerning them. The degree to be received follows the name.

All of them may be addressed at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky.

Charles L. Phipps' home town is Florence. He is a 1940 B. A. graduate of Mississippi College. Mississippi pastorates include Hickory Grove, Bethel, and Richland. He is now pastor of New Hope Church, Springfield, Ky.

Joe Causey, B. D., claims Port Gibson as home and is a 1946 B. S. graduate of Mississippi College. Mississippi pastorates include Red Lick, Mountain Creek and Goodwater. He is now pastor of Highview Baptist Mission, Louisville, Ky.

J. Louie Poythress, B. D., claims Meridian as home and is a 1950 B. A. graduate of Mississippi College.

William L. Heath, B. D., whose home town is New Albany graduated at Mississippi College with a B. A. degree in 1949. Mississippi pastorates include Pocahontas, Pearl City, and Providence. He is now pastor of West Point Church, Centertown, Ky.

William F. Evans, B. D., calls Union his home town and graduated at Mississippi College in 1949 with a B. A. degree. Mississippi pastorates include Edinburg, Old Hebron, Rock Branch, and Benton. He is now pastor of Goshen Church at Sinia, Ky.

James A. Foster, Th. M., is a native of Jackson and graduated from Mississippi College in 1941 with a B. A. degree. Before going to the Philippines as a missionary he graduated from Southern Seminary. He and Mrs. Foster have spent their furlough year in further study at Louisville.

We are thrilled to be able to tell the story of Jesus to these people, to read God's Word, to share experiences of faith, and to pray to God—in Portuguese. Somehow the last was the hardest; we always felt after we had finished, that we ought to repeat it in English just to be sure God understood!—Burley and Ulene Cader, missionaries to Brazil.

GOING PLACES

By A. L. GOODRICH

More Figures— More Proof

Last week's issue of the Baptist Record carried a list of the "100 Churches Leading in Total Gifts to All Mission Causes." We do not want to use the time worn term "I told you so", but we just cannot refrain from calling attention to the fact that every one of these churches is a Baptist Record church. That is no accident. The Baptist Record is not responsible for the fact that these churches lead all the other churches in the state in total gifts, but it certainly did help them to reach that distinguished group.

Cedar Grove, Yalobusha Is No. 1053

One of the latest additions to the growing list of churches that have adopted the popular and progressive EVERY FAMILY Plan of the Baptist Record is Cedar Grove Church in Yalobusha County. According to Mrs. Virginia Davis, the church clerk, "Members of Cedar Grove Church have decided to adopt the EVERY FAMILY Plan to get the Baptist Record."

Record readers in Yalobusha County are now listed as follows: Big Springs 12; COFFEEVILLE 83; CAMP GROUND 51; Elam 9; Mt. Gilead 15; NEW HOPE 27; OAKLAND 18; O'TUCKOLOFA 23; Scobey 14; Tillatoba 1; WATER VALLEY 123; Wayside 2; and Cedar Grove 10.

Good Hope Is In

So far as we know, all the Bristers, who are Mississippi Baptist pastors, are Baptist Record friends. Rev. J. W. Brister, pastor of the Good Hope Church in Madison County is no exception. Recently he sent a list of the families of his church with instructions to send the Baptist Record to them.

Record readers in Madison County are now listed as follows: CAMDEN 22; CANTON, FIRST 310; CANTON, CENTER TERRACE 12 FLORA 75; GOOD HOPE 11; LULA 16; MADISON 54; LONE PINE 29; Ridgeland 9.

Coldwater To Warm Up

There is nothing cold about Coldwater Church in Marshall County as evidenced by the recent action of the church in adopting the Every Family Plan.

H. Gordon Shamburger Is Friendship Pastor

REV. H. GORDON SHAMBURGER

Rev. H. Gordon Shamburger, assumed his duties March 15, as pastor of the Friendship Church, McComb.

For the past three years he was pastor of the Calvary Church, Bogue Chitto. While at Calvary he led the congregation in the building of a beautiful brick auditorium, and in the retirement of the total indebtedness of this structure. Improvements were also made on the pastorium. Both the Sunday School and BTU doubled in enrollment, a Brotherhood was organized, and there were over fifty additions during his ministry.

New Salvation Tracts Available

The new series on Salvation include: "Decide Now", "What Saith the Scriptures", "Don't Delay—Decide Today", "Life Begins at?", "It Can Happen To You", and "The Police Chiefs Roundup".

For the sick there are three: "I Too Am in Hospital", "Try the Uplook", and "Here's Wishing You Well".

There are three new tracts in the Service Men's series as follows: "Men on a Mountain", "A Bow-Legged Blessing", and "You'll Win If You Want To."

who lives in Memphis has accomplished what a few pastors have not done who live on the field. He has led the church to make the Baptist Record a part of his program.

Record readers in Marshall County are now listed as follows: BYHALIA 58; CORNERSVILLE 38; HOLLY SPRINGS 208; Mt. Moriah 1; PLEASANT GROVE 41; POTTS CAMP 61; Red Banks 1; SLAYDEN 61; Spring Hill 11; and COLDWATER 20.

Winona To Honor SS Superintendent

Sunday, March 22, the First Baptist Sunday School of Winona will observe Superintendent Appreciation Day, according to an announcement by Rev. C. B. Hamlett, III, pastor. Mr. M. C. Billingsley is in his 27th year as General Superintendent of the school.

The school over which Mr. Billingsley was first elected superintendent was a class school; now it is a department school. Eleven of the departments with 38 classes meet each Sunday morning; two of the departments, the Cradle Roll and Extension, are home visitation departments.

The parents of Mr. Billingsley moved to Winona from Lodi, Mississippi when he was eighteen months old. He has been a member of every department of the school of which he now is superintendent. At the age of thirteen he was converted and was baptized into the membership of the church. He was ordained as a deacon in 1924, and is now chairman of the deacons of the church.

As a boy he can recall Arthur Flake as Sunday school superintendent. Mr. Flake left Winona in 1906 to join the forces of the Sunday School Board in Nashville and to become a pioneer in Sunday school administration. Mr. Flake as superintendent was followed by Harry Watts, who in turn was followed by Judge V. D. Rowe, who was followed by Mr. Billingsley.

Each of the 674 members of the Sunday school are being urged to attend Sunday, March 22, to show appreciation by their presence. The eleven department superintendents throughout the school will also be honored.

AND SITTING DOWN THEY WATCHED HIM THERE

Matthew 27:36

"And sitting down they watched him there"
The Son of God nailed to the tree. This shameful death God's words declare.

He died for you, He died for me.

Pure Son of God how can it be? My human mind cannot conceive How my black sins are laid on Thee—

Mine not to reason but believe.

Mine to accept Thee as my Lord, Mine to reject Thee if I choose; Mine to live on in sweet accord; Or my eternal soul to lose.

Dear Son of God, I how in shame Before the cross Thy form didst bless,

Eager to call upon Thy name. My guilt admit, my sins confess.

Once dying man, now risen King, Once scorned of men, now Lord above;

Let Easter voices praises sing And newborn hearts proclaim Thy love.

—C. Bryant Young.

CORRECTION

In the Baptist Record for March 5, 1953, an article by Dr. R. Paul Caudill entitled Relief For Holland and Korea carried a statement that packages sent to Dr. Abernathy should be sent APO. This is not the case. They should be sent Post Office Box Special No. 1, Pusan, Korea, as regular mail.

Three hundred and sixty-six days, each one filled to overflowing with joys and victories, with trials and tribulations, with opportunities and challenges. Twelve months of service for the Master! It is as impossible to capture in words all of the feelings and thoughts and emotions that make each experience in the day important as it is to reproduce the true beauty of the rainbow with mere man-made colors. — Anna Mae Wollerman, missionary to Brazil (in annual report for 1952.)

Baptist Bible Institute
Moves To Graceville, Fla.

The Baptist Bible Institute of Lakeland, Florida, by unanimous action of the Board of Trustees has accepted the invitation to move the school to Graceville, Florida, near the junction of the Florida-Alabama-Georgia state lines. The proposed new campus will consist of one hundred-sixty acres, combining the regular Institute teaching program with a new project of rural and agricultural life training.

President Arthur House Stainback announces "the proposal for the new school will be to create a unique type of ministry where the young men will be trained in fields of poultry, livestock care, and certain phases of agriculture, that the new graduates of Baptist Bible Institute might be assets to their community spiritually, socially, and economically."

A new sixteen page picture booklet "The Story of Baptist Bible Institute" has just come from the press and is available for all who request a copy. Send your request to: Baptist Bible Institute, P. O. Box 552, Lakeland, Florida.

Quotable Quotes
From Three Sunday
School Conventions

W. A. HARRELL

"Southern Baptists increased their investment in church buildings during the past year by $129,186,501.00. This is the largest increase ever recorded in one year by Southern Baptists.

"The total evaluation of property used by Baptist churches is now $890,697,339.00. We are facing a year which will show even a larger increase.

"Southern Baptists are building for the masses of the people.

"Southern Baptists should build to the maximum in carrying forward a full church program.

"We should provide for worship, preaching, and our educational facilities as a first requirement. Our immediate need is for more educational space and if necessary enlarged auditoriums to care for this increase in worship and preaching services."

J. P. EDMUNDS

"Mississippi Sunday School enrollment had increased 80 per cent the past 18 years while Southern Baptist enrollment had increased 74 per cent.

"Open country Baptist churches the past five years have shown a growth practically paralleling city churches.

"Younger churches show greater rate of growth than older churches.

"Approximately 4,000 churches were organized in the Southern Convention from 1940 to 1950. These grew faster in proportion than those organized previously."

A. V. WASHBURN

"There are 20,000 places where Southern Baptists should start new Sunday Schools.

"There are 20,000,000 people out of practical reach of a Baptist Sunday School. The population trends are to the suburban areas creating large unchurched areas.

"The people are not seeking the churches, rather the churches must seek the people.

"Starting hundreds and thousands of New Sunday Schools now is the quickest, readiest step Southern Baptists can take to reach 'A Million More in '54.'"

Each time I look at the beauty of the mountains my eyes also catch sight of the homes of the poor near the foot of those towering mountains. Then I am made to realize anew the great spiritual need of a multitude of people who are in ignorance of God's great love and his wonderful plan for their salvation.—Emanetta (Mrs. S. A.) Qualls, missionary to Brazil.

From where we stand there seems to be one thing that can meet the challenge of closing doors, one thing that can satisfy the cry for light in darkness, the one thing that will be pleasing to the Lord himself. That is of course advance. We rejoice in the Lord that you are helping us to make this possible through your gifts and prayer.—James and Peggy Jean Bartley, missionaries to Uruguay, in language school in Costa Rica.

Sunday School Lesson

IN THE SHADOW OF THE CROSS
By: Dr. Clifton J. Allen
Text: Matthew 26

Love has no limits, as we shall see from the gift of Mary and, infinitely more, from the gift of Christ.

LOVE'S BEST FOR CHRIST

We can safely imagine that Simon had been cured by Jesus, and this supper was given in loving gratitude. From John 12: 1-9 we learn that Lazarus was a guest, that Martha served, and that Mary of Bethany was the woman who came with the curse of precious ointment. As Jesus reclined at the table, Mary poured the costly ointment on his head. She went further in humility and devotion, as John tells us, and poured some upon his feet and wiped them with her hair. It was the costliest treasure she possessed, the best way she could think of to express her love.

The disciples, led by Judas, became indignant and complained about the waste. How blind and how selfish. But Jesus defended her extravagant gift, explained that there would be continuing opportunities to give to the poor, and commended her gift of love.

Mary's gift was an expression of love's best. Jesus saw in it more than love; a preparation for his burial. As such, it must have brought "balm to his lonely, bleeding soul." He also declared that her expression of love would be remembered down the centuries, wherever his gospel should be preached, and that it would become an enduring memorial. The influence of her gift has indeed been a continuing perfume of spiritual sweetness to inspire others to generosity and devotion.

CHRIST'S ALL FOR US

The Passover had pointed backward to God's deliverance of his people. It seemed appropriate now to Jesus to institute another memorial to remind Christians until the end of time of his sacrifice for their sins. He took the simple elements of bread and the fruit of the vine to symbolize the giving of his body and the shedding of his blood to establish a new covenant, the covenant of redemption. Thus Jesus instituted a dramatic memorial and charged his followers to observe it in remembrance of him. His death was a necessity for the remission of sins. Nothing else is necessary . . . neither ordinance nor sacrament nor church membership nor personal works of righteousness.

The Master then said to the disciples that he would not again drink of the fruit of the vine until he would drink it new with them in the Father's kingdom. That kingdom is not temporal but spiritual. He was pointing forward to his return and to fellowship with his own in the Father's everlasting kingdom.

Love is extravagant. If Christians today lived by this truth, a tithe given to the church would never seem enough and additional love gifts of money would never seem enough. Serving faithfully on Sunday would never seem enough. Living uprightly would not seem enough. Earnest efforts to win the lost would not seem enough. But all these we would do, and everything else within human possibility, in the utter abandon and extravagance of sincere love for the Saviour.

We need the Lord's Supper. We need it as a reminder of the surpassing love of Christ. The one thing he wanted us most to remember is the sacrifice on the cross. Nothing else could measure God's hatred for sin or his love for lost men. Unless our hearts be altogether cold and callous, remembering the sacrificial love of Christ will strengthen faith, inspire gratitude, and provoke to good works. We need the Lord's supper to remind us of the Saviour's coming again and victorious triumph.

We can share in Christ's sufferings. As Jesus entered into the shadow of the cross, his disciples failed him in his most crucial hour. They slept while he agonized in bloody sweat. The omnipotent energies of Christ are still being expended in execution of the Heavenly Father's will. We can share his suffering by working tirelessly in his name, bearing his reproach, enduring persecution for righteousness' sake, and hazarding our lives for the cause of world redemption. If we suffer with him, we shall also reign with him.

Dr. Head Resigns At Southwestern

DR. E. D. HEAD

President E. D. Head of the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary today tendered his resignation to the Board of Trustees of that institution in its regular spring meeting in Fort Worth.

The resignation came as a culmination of a long illness dating back to January, 1952.

During months of convalescence it became Dr. Head's conviction that he could attain complete recovery only by being freed of the responsibilities of the Seminary.

In keeping with Dr. Head's request, the Board unanimously approved that the resignation become effective August 1, 1953.

A committee has been appointed to consider and recommend to the Board a possible successor.

Dr. R. Q. Leavell, president of New Orleans Baptist Seminary will be the feature speaker on the opening day, Sunday, April 5th. He will speak on the theme "Theological Education for Our Day."

The new Seminary is under the direction of an International Board of Trustees and led by an excellent faculty of well qualified men and women, both missionaries and nationals.

Three new buildings and two others already in use make up the group of buildings located on two closely connected lots in the center and one block from the principal street of the fast growing "Chicago" of Latin America, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

Missionary W. Lowrey Cooper is president of the institution and Mrs. Anne S. Margrett is Directress of the Womens division. (Editors Note Dr. Cooper is a brother-in-law of Dr. C. L. Quarles, Mississippi Baptist Executive Secretary, and a son of Dr. W. R. Cooper retired Baptist Pastor, who now lives in Jackson.)

Korean Relief, Yes—But Not Through APO

Southern Baptist missionaries in Korea have sent an urgent request to Foreign Mission Board headquarters in Richmond that the people be informed that relief packages should not be sent to their APO address, but rather should be sent to the Post Office address.

"The past few weeks we have been a bit embarrassed by so much relief clothing being sent to us through APO," one missionary wrote. "I have been getting so much I can hardly get it all in my car each day. We want the relief to keep coming, but not through APO."

Relief clothing for Korea should be addressed to Baptist Mission, P. O. Box Special No. 1, Pusan, Korea. Money for relief should be sent to the Southern Baptist Relief Committee, George W. Sadler, director, P. O. Box 5148, Richmond 20, Va.

Letters to missionaries in Korea may be addressed: APO 59, c-o Postmaster, San Francisco, Calif., but not relief packages.

New Cooperative Program Folders Now Available

By JOE ABRAMS

Director of Promotion

Something new—and different—emphasizing the Cooperative Program—came off the press this week—and is available in limited quantities to those who will use them wisely.

This something new is in the form of a three-way folder, in three colors and will prove very attractive in presenting Mississippi Baptists' Advance in Stewardship for 1953.

These folders were designed as a companion to the wall-size Cooperative Program Poster.

Sample copies have already been mailed to pastors and other church leaders will receive copies later.

These folders can be distributed and used effectively in many ways—through church organization and in study groups, in tract racks, in regular church membership mailings and other ways.

Write for as many as you will use to Dr. Chester L. Quarles, Executive Secretary, Mississippi Baptist Convention Board, Box 530, Jackson, Miss.

Many people who have a deep yearning to understand the Bible are confused by its strange style and its unfamiliar paradoxes. Some of these difficulties have been inherited from the original texts while others were added in translation. Some were the result of simple misunderstandings and still more have occurred from interpretations. Dr. James E. Dean's book entitled Keys That Unlock The Scriptures ($3.00) will perhaps explain the Bible's diverse ways and single out the misconstructions which have given rise to dissensions and sectarian distinctions. Order from the Baptist Book Store.

Sou. Baptist Churches Multiplying In Ohio

The writer was privileged to speak to the first Evangelistic Conference ever held in Ohio by Southern Baptist churches, January 15. To our amazement we discovered that a large per cent of the two million non-resident Southern Baptists are scattered over Ohio, Indiana, and Michigan. The great industrial centers in these three states have drawn heavily on Southern Baptist ranks from the states comprising our convention.

Conservation Necessitates

Organizing of Churches

If we are to conserve for Baptist causes this tremendous force of those who migrate to the North, then the organizing of Southern Baptist churches becomes a necessity. We were informed by preachers and laymen alike that unless Southern Baptist churches are organized in that great area, most of our people join either Presbyterian, Nazarene, Fundamentalist, or other religious groups, or they unite with no church at all. The reason for this action is based on the charge that most of the existing Baptist churches in that area are blighted by formalism and a complete lack of the spirit of evangelism. It is reported that most of these existing churches have no Sunday evening services and seldom even give an invitation for church membership by letter or on profession of faith.

Growth Is Unprecedented

The growth in organization of churches and in additions by letter and profession of faith is unprecedented in Ohio and Indiana. There are 37 Southern Baptist churches now in Ohio, with 10 others ready for organization. At the evangelistic conference this great growth of enthusiastic followers of Christ pledged to have 100 Southern Baptist churches in Ohio alone pledged to participate in the proposed nation-wide simultaneous crusade to be conducted by Southern Baptists in 1955. Some of these churches (all are new) are already erecting beautiful and commodious church buildings. The Westwood Baptist Church (Southern) of Dayton, Ohio—Rev. John W. Kurtz, pastor—has the first unit of a great church plant, with 10 acres of ground. The basement seats over 1,000. The church is filled to overflow at every Sunday service. The total receipts of tithes and offerings for 1952 in this church amounted to $69,550.56.

Every one of the 37 churches will engage in a simultaneous crusade in April this year. Dr. C. E. Autrey of the Department of Evangelism of the Home Mission Board will direct the crusade.

Senate Committee Approves Second Bill To Bar Obscene Matter

Washington, D. C. (RNS)—The Senate Judiciary Committee moved to plug another loophole in federal laws against obscene material.

It approved a bill that would ban from the mails "every obscene, lewd, lascivious, filthy or vile article, matter, thing, device, or substance."

The measure was requested by the Post Office Department in view of a recent court decision that present obscenity statutes do not bar the mailing of questionable phonograph records, but only the printed matter or pictures.

The committee recently approved a bill to close a loophole in federal law which has permitted the transportation of pornographic material across state lines by private automobile. Both bills will now be on the calendar for early action by the Senate as a whole.

Religious groups have urged Congress to take strong action against obscene material following disclosure last year by a Congressional investigating committee that the distribution of pornography, particularly to juveniles, has become a "multi-million dollar business."
